Full-Time Tenure-Track Position in Critical Literacy and Foundations of Education

The Department of Education at Tufts University invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor in the area of Critical Literacy Studies and Foundations of Education. Scholarly expertise in the areas of gender and/or race preferred. Responsibilities include teaching and advising in the Department’s Master of Arts in Educational Studies and Master of Arts in Teaching programs, conducting research on critical literacies in educational contexts, actively seeking grants, and participating in departmental and university-wide initiatives. Doctorate at time of appointment required.

Review of applications will begin November 3, 2014, and will continue until the position is filled. Applicants should submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, two examples of scholarship, and contact information for three references to:

Please direct questions to Sabina Vaught (sabina.vaught@tufts.edu), Search Committee Chair; David Hammer (david.hammer@tufts.edu), Department of Education Chair; or Carla Walsh (carla.walsh@tufts.edu), Search Committee Staff Administrator.

Tufts University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. We are committed to increasing the diversity of our faculty. Members of underrepresented groups and women are strongly encouraged to apply.