Program Manager, Fulani Fellows
Full Time Management – Level 1
ASP of NY

About the organization

The All Stars Project, Inc. (ASP) transforms the lives of youth and poor communities using the developmental power of performance, in partnership with caring adults. The ASP has pioneered a model for youth and community growth that makes use of cutting-edge discoveries in human and social development, as well as state-of-the-art practices from the worlds of theatre and improvisation, creating and sponsoring innovative programs that engage people of all ages from poor, urban communities in afterschool development, a new way of engaging poverty. ASP has a growing national footprint with locations in New York City, Newark, Chicago, Dallas, Bridgeport, and the San Francisco Bay Area and is 100% privately funded.

The programs of the All Stars Project of New York include:

• All Stars Talent Show Network – young people produce and perform in hip-hop talent shows in their own neighborhoods
• Development School for Youth – young people receive leadership training and paid summer internships in partnership with the business community
• Youth Onstage! – exposes young people to the world of theatre in classes taught by professionals
• Castillo Theatre – award-winning, off-off-Broadway political theatre, bringing together audiences from the diverse communities of NYC
• UX – free, university-style school for continuing development that offers classes, workshops and field trips open to people of all ages
• Operation Conversation: Cops & Kids – brings young people from poor communities together with police officers in performance workshops
• Talented Volunteers – award-winning volunteer involvement program

Job Summary

We are seeking a dynamic and energetic program manager to launch a new initiative, the Fulani Fellows. The fellowship program will be a rigorous introduction to, and immersion in, the on-the-ground practice, methodology, and approach to human development employed in the programs of the All Stars Project. The fellowship program is designed as an opportunity for young professionals to train with, learn from, and work with the distinguished development psychologist and grassroots educator, Dr. Lenora Fulani and her colleagues. This role will include a focus on the programs run by co-founder, Dr. Lenora Fulani: UX and Operation Conversation: Cops & Kids.

We are seeking a program manager who will be responsible for outreach and recruitment of fellowship candidates from institutions of higher learning; running a selection process; onboarding; operationalizing and running two five-month terms year. The program manager for Fulani Fellows is a member of the ASP of NY Programs staff and reports to the senior program manager/Operation Conversation: Cops & Kids.

• Create materials needed for recruitment of fellows.
• Conduct national search for postgraduate candidates, sourcing a minimum of 10 candidates per semester.
• Manage fellow selection process that includes creating a committee to review and select fellowship candidates.
• Onboard and orient three fellows for each of two annual five-month terms, beginning January 2016.

Program Management

• Create and establish five-month program for fellows, coordinating with ASP programming.
• Manage day-to-day operations of Fulani Fellows program.
• Compile and prepare reports on Fulani Fellows program as needed.
• Maintain Fulani Fellows program budget.
• Maintain FileMaker database – input, produce lead sheets, run reports, queries, and other necessary functions.
• Assist in production management for UX.
• Support production and audience development for Operation Conversation: Cops & Kids events.
• Participate in outreach efforts for community meetings.

Qualifications

• 3+ years of program management experience with a proven track record of producing results.
• Proven project management skills to produce quality results in a timely manner.
• Experience with conference and/or event production.
• Familiarity with the academic arena required; experience in campus recruitment or college placement preferred.
• Community organizing experience a plus.
• Capacity to apply independent judgment; while at the same time navigating and making use of input.
• Proven people management experience in a non-profit or education setting.
• Strong computer and administrative skills.
• Detail-oriented, organized, and motivated.
• Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
• Excellent interpersonal and relationship-building skills.
• Comfortable working in a fast-paced entrepreneurial environment.
• Flexibility in schedule; evenings and Saturdays often required.
• Understanding of poverty-related issues and a commitment to creating educational and developmental opportunities for inner-city youth and adults in outside of school contexts.
• Ability to clearly articulate the All Stars mission and strategies to a broad range of people.
• Bachelors degree preferred.
