Position: Assistant, Associate or Professor in Literacy Curriculum

Posting Date: July 29, 2015

Closing Date: Open until filled.

The Faculty of Education, Western University, invites applications for an appointment in the area of Curriculum Studies-Literacy Education at the rank of Assistant Professor (tenure-track), Associate Professor (tenure-track or tenured) or Professor (tenured) depending on qualifications and extent of research accomplishment. The effective date of the appointment will be January 1, 2016; however an earlier or later start is possible.

Applicants must have:
- a Ph.D. in Education with a focus in Curriculum-literacy education (or equivalent),
- demonstrated research capabilities in Curriculum-literacy education,
- and professional experience in literacy education.

Priority will be given to applicants whose expertise falls within multiliteracies education with application in one or more of the following sub-areas:
- early literacy,
- transnational literacy curriculum,
- literacy and the arts.

The successful applicant will bring academic strength and collaborative abilities to the Faculty and will contribute to programs at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Teaching duties will include the development and delivery of curriculum and literacy-related courses within a combination of the pre-service program, professional graduate programs, and research-intensive graduate programs as well as graduate student supervision. The successful applicant will also maintain an active research program that is focused on one or more aspects of Curriculum-literacy education. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Western’s Faculty of Education has been at the leading edge of education in Canada since 1962 and offers educational opportunities at the baccalaureate, master’s and doctoral levels.
