Join us for an exciting program featuring symposia, themed paper sessions and posters. Get to know other qualitative researchers and educators at breakfast, lunch, and evening reception. Plenary Session “Validity in Psychological Research Reconsidered” by SQIP founders.

Keynote Presentations:

The Bronx African-American History Project

“Oral History in Service of Insights into Experiences of Marginalized Peoples & Communities”

Founded in 2003 as a collaboration between Fordham's Department of African and African American Studies and the Bronx County Historical Society, The Bronx African American History Project has grown to become one of the largest community based oral history projects in the nation.

Dr. Kim Hopper

“Rigor, Relevance and Advocacy: Notes from a Slow Learner”

Kim Hopper is Professor of Clinical Sociomedical Sciences in Columbia University's Mailman School of Public Policy, and Co-Director of the Center for the Study of Issues in Public Mental Health. Dr. Hopper conducts ethnographic and historical research on psychiatric care and homelessness.

Registration and more information at qualpsy.org/2017