

Afterschool Service-Learning Extravaganza

Resources for Afterschool Educators

Wednesday, May 30, 2007
7:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Sponsored by
Region 11 Technical Assistance Team
Los Angeles County Office of Education,
Constitutional Rights Foundation,
and Los Angeles Unified School District

Hilton Pasadena
168 South Los Robles Avenue
Pasadena, CA 91101

Afterschool educators, coordinators, and teachers in Los Angeles County are invited to acquire resources and strategies to provide students with service-learning activities designed to address community issues and needs, improve academic achievement and strengthen civic responsibility.

The Extravaganza will feature:

- Real examples from elementary, middle, and high school afterschool programs
- Seven elements of high-quality service-learning in afterschool programs
- Five easy steps to service-learning in afterschool programs
- Tried and true tools and resources from local non-profit organizations to implement service-learning projects
- Opportunities to receive mini-grants to support your service-learning program
- Free copy of Service-Learning in Afterschool Programs handbook created by Youth Service California
- Free copy of Active Citizenship Today published by Constitutional Rights Foundation and Close Up Foundation

Registration Fee: $25 per person includes training, resources, continental breakfast, box lunch, and parking, Please submit a check or purchase order payable to: Constitutional Rights Foundation

DEADLINE TO REGISTER: FRIDAY, MAY 18, 2007

Please send registration (on reverse side) and payment to:

Michelle M. Herczog, Ed.D.
Consultant-in-Charge, History-Social Science
Los Angeles County Office of Education, Div. CIS
9300 Imperial Highway, ECC 236
Downey, CA 90242

FAX: (562) 401-5405

Los Angeles County
Office of Education

Leading Educators ■ Supporting Students ■ Serving Communities

Questions about the event?

Please contact:

Katie Moore
Senior Program Director
Constitutional Rights Foundation
(213) 316-2104
Katie@crf-usa.org

Questions about registration?

Please contact:

Karen Lefler
Los Angeles County Office of Education
(562) 922-6331