

2nd Socio-cultural Theory in Education Conference: Theory, Identity and Learning 10th-11th September 2007

Commences 10.30am 10th September with formal dinner at 7:30pm.
Close 4.30pm 11th September

Keynote Speakers

Landsdowne Professor Wolff-Michael Roth, Applied Cognitive Science, University of Victoria, British Columbia *

Professor Anna Sfard, Department of Education, University of Haifa, Israel; Institute of Education, University of London; Division of Science and Mathematics Education, Michigan State University, US

Dr Etienne Wenger, Independent Researcher and Consultant on Communities of Practice

Professor Julian Williams, Learning, Teaching and Assessment, University of Manchester

Early bird registration by 1st June 2007: £195

Late registration after 1st June 2007: £220

Concessionary rate for students available

Organised by the Socio-cultural Theory Interest group (ScTIG), School of Education, Faculty of Humanities, University of Manchester.

Call for abstracts deadline is 15th May, notification by 1st June

Further Details / Conference Programme/booking form at www.lta.education.manchester.ac.uk/ScTIG/2007conferenceoverview.html

Enquiries and submission of booking forms :

Diane Brooks: diane.brooks@manchester.ac.uk (0161 275 3409) international phone (+44 161 275 3409)

All other inquires directed to Valerie Farnsworth:
valerie.farnsworth@manchester.ac.uk (0161 275 8512).

* We are grateful to the British Academy for their support in a British Conference Grant.